

Bryce Damuth is an accomplished, professional Artist-turned-Comedian. He brings a thoughtful, silly, perspective-bending approach to comedy, shifting effortlessly from the real to surreal, and back again. A friend and veteran comic described him as:

“If Dalí had a microphone instead of a paintbrush.”

Bryce has performed at clubs all over the southeast, as well as festivals all over the country. He was a featured comic in the Scruffy City Comedy Festival, Knoxville; performed in the World Series of Comedy in Charlotte and Las Vegas; twice performed at the Geek Media Expo in Franklin/Nashville, TN; and has twice contributed to the Broken Record Comedy Show, which set and broke the Guinness World Record for Longest Continuous Comedy Show.
